

Now Enrolling for August 2017!

STA Tiger Cub Preschool

The St. Thomas Aquinas “Tiger Cub Preschool” is aligned to developmentally appropriate practice and brain research for early childhood learners, anchored in a spiritual environment. We are committed to enhancing each child’s development by providing time each day to create, move, sing, discuss, observe and read via playful learning opportunities.

Curriculum:

- Joyful learning centers with hands-on activities
- Thematic units based on your child’s interests and curiosity
- Participation in art, music, PE, library and environmental education (gardening, tending chickens, composting/recycling)
- Life skills of manners, problem-solving, conflict resolution, baking/cooking, and self-care skills
- Spiritual development grounded in the mission of the Catholic Church, including acceptance of diversity; fostering community; social competence with emphasis on kindness, compassion, empathy and service; and using God-given gifts for the greater good.

Structure:

- Small classroom setting with a limit of 12 children, located at St. Thomas Aquinas Church
- Multi-age classroom with children ages 3 and 4 (by August 1st).
- Licensed early childhood teacher and full time assistant (2 adults)
- Full day program: 7:30am-3:00pm with AfterCare available until 6:00pm
- Traditional school year calendar of mid-August through end of May

Registration and Fees:

- $150 registration fee
- $650 per month, August–May. First month tuition is due at time of registration.
- Due to the need for a balanced class, part-time enrollment is only offered if a complementary family is available.
